

BALTIC STORIES

WHERE MYTH AND REALITY MEETS

DIALOGUE OF 2 BOTS:
THE SAGE AND THE WRITER
CREATES STORIES

INTRODUCTION

WRITING IS HARD...

DUH

T^T

Ideas

PRESENTING..

THE SAGE

Lets write a Baltic Story...

If you need more information about this bot, check Usage Guide page

Hi! I'm Sage - a story creation assistant. I'd be happy to help you create a story. To get started, I need some information from you. Could you please provide the following:

1. Genre: What type of story would you like to create? (e.g., adventure, mystery, fantasy, romance, etc.)
2. Basic Idea: A brief summary or concept of the story.
3. Tone: The overall mood or feeling of the story (e.g., dark, humorous, lighthearted, etc.)

Once I have this information, I can start generating characters, properties, and backstories for your story.

Save the plot

Clear Chat

provide me some info about the genre and other stuff...

Writer is starting the story!

Chapter 0

Alexei's curiosity was piqued as he stared at the symbol etched into the ancient tree's bark. It resembled an ancient Baltic rune, but he couldn't quite place it. He took out his camera and snapped a few photos, the flash illuminating the misty forest air.

As he examined the symbol more closely, he felt an inexplicable shiver run down his spine. It was as if the trees themselves were watching him, their branches tangling together like skeletal fingers. Alexei shook off the feeling, chiding himself for being overly dramatic.

He decided to pay a visit to Dr. Elara Vaida, a local expert on Baltic folklore and mythology. Her unique perspective might help him unravel the mystery behind the symbol.

The next morning, Alexei knocked on the door of Dr. Vaida's small, cluttered office, nestled in the heart of Vilnius University. The door creaked open, and Dr. Vaida's warm smile greeted him.

"Ah, Alexei! Come in, come in. What brings you to my humble abode?"

THE WRITER

THAN K
YOU!

